Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document	Registered Charity as from the 12th of August 1987 which is governed b
	Early Years Scotland.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustees are elected on an annual basis at a general meeting every October. Candidates are elected and then seconded by a quorum of members, by the show of hands.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

To provide a care and education setting that implements

- Getting it right for every child (GIRFEC),
- Building the ambition,
- A Curriculum for excellence,
- Pre–Birth to three guidelines,
- Care inspectorate guidelines and all other relevant local and National Guidelines.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Gordon Park ELC is a small friendly setting, providing a varied and informative Early Years Education for Children aged 2 – 5 years in Ellon and surrounding areas.

The setting is open 5 days a week, providing care for pre-schoolers as well as eligible children.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

- Appointed a Family Learning Practitioner, funded by a grant from Robertson Trust.
- Implemented Fussy Eating and Big Emotions workshops for the Nursery and the Community.
- Fully implemented the Famly app, which was introduced to help support the administration of children and finances.
- We continue to be heavily funded by Aberdeenshire Council, due to the number of eligible children attending the setting. We anticipate that ratio between eligible and privately funded children will continue to be weighted towards eligible children for some time.
- Peep training implemented for staff.
- Implementation of Xero accounting software.
- Creation and implementation of Emergency Planning.
