Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The Edinburgh Tool Library (ETL) is a SCIO whose constitution is based upon a model provided by The Edinburgh Voluntary Organisations Council.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustees are recruited as needed, based upon their own skills and the skills needed by the board. Between 5 and 8 board members are required according to ETLs constitution, with a gender balance where possible. Recruitment is done by open advertisement and through our network of existing trustees, staff, volunteers and members.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The organisation is established for charitable purposes only, and in particular, the objects are:

- to advance citizenship or community development
- to advance education

The area within which the organisation shall operate (in this constitution referred to as the 'Area of Benefit') shall be Edinburgh and the surrounding areas.

The organisation shall promote (but not promote exclusively) its activities and delivery operations to people within the 'Area of Benefit'. These people will be the organisation's beneficiaries.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objectives

Activities, achievements and performance have been combined in the below section.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

- 2,202 members (+31% vs PY) at the end of March 2024
- 12,412 unique tool loans (+49% vs PY); £620k cost saving for members and 85 metric tonnes CO₂ saved by sharing instead of buying
- Ran 27 outreach sessions with charities including Upmo, Positive Paths, Harbour Housing Association, Leith Community Growers, Homeschool Kids Workshop, Libertus Independent Living, Pilton Community Health Project's Women Supporting Women group, Feniks, LGBT Health and Wellbeing, Astley Ainsley hospital.
- Observed a behaviour shift as members shared more in Spring 2023 compared to the previous year, reflecting improved engagement and resource access.
- Engaged 334 members in the Circular Communities Scotland Survey and conducted our own membership survey to inform a 5-year strategy.
- Piloted our first satellite library in partnership with SW20 at Colinton, adapting logistics, systems, and offering DIY classes with positive feedback.
- Launched a bike workshop and Cycle Kitchen at Meadowbank Tool Library, focusing on repairs and maintenance for cycles, wheelchairs, and more.
- Installed two solar libraries in Leith and Portobello, providing charging, essential resources, and a little free beach library for visibility and community use.
- Expanded Retrofixers' focus on training volunteers to draught-proof homes, assisting vulnerable individuals referred by local agencies.
- Organised 12 successful Repair Café events at venues across Edinburgh.
- Completed 6 Volunteer Assembly projects, including the building of benches, trestle arches, and mobility hub improvements, fostering future collaborations.
- Ran two Tools for Life programme cohorts, refining recruitment, and enhancing the format to include community-benefit projects.

Changes Related to Key Staff and People

- Welcomed [REDACTED] as treasurer, succeeding [REDACTED] during [REDACTED]
- Secured funding through SLIC for a Tool Libraries Manager role, currently in recruitment, to improve services, train volunteers, and expand operations citywide.
- Expanded staff roles: [REDACTED] took on an extra day for Retrofixers, [REDACTED] transitioned from her social media role, and [REDACTED] assumed additional outreach responsibilities, enabling strategic focus for [REDACTED].

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity’s policy on reserves	The charity operates a 3-month reserves policy.
Details of any deficit	n/a
Donated facilities and services (if any)	ETL has an agreement with Custom Lane to provide the workshop rent free and an office space. This equates to a saving of approximately £900 per month. Our premises at Meadowbank is provided through Places for People on a rent free basis for two years, saving approximately £11k a year.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner		The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement		My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
